

Petr Vohnický*Partner

Petr Vohnický specialises in complex litigation matters before civil courts and in arbitration proceedings, typically involving cross-border or regulatory elements.

He has long focused on the private enforcement of competition law and represents clients in actions for damages. In this area, he is primarily involved in representing leading international technology, pharmaceutical, and industrial companies.

In the banking sector, Petr advises financial institutions in strategically significant litigation, particularly in defensive disputes arising from regulatory matters.

In the field of insolvency law, Petr has advised creditors in resolving insolvency situations involving debtors operating in sectors such as gaming, engineering, real estate development, and others.

Petr also has significant experience in advising on disputes concerning the adequacy of consideration following a squeeze-out. His experience in this area includes sectors such as engineering, energy, and the production of construction materials.

Prior to joining our law firm, Petr worked for a leading international law firm.

Projects

- Representing a leading global technology company in an action for damages arising from an abuse of dominance before Czech courts, as well as in preliminary ruling proceedings before the Court of Justice of the European Union.
- Representing a leading global truck manufacturer in an action for damages before Czech courts following up on a decision of the European Commission.
- Advising a major Czech telecommunications company on enforcing protection against unlawful state aid before Czech courts.
- Representing a major Czech bank in matters concerning early repayment charges for consumer mortgage loans.
- Representing a major Czech bank in several systemically significant actions for damages related to anti-money laundering (AML) regulations.
- Representing an engineering company in proceedings for review of the adequacy of consideration paid to minority shareholders in a squeeze-out.
- Representing a leading Czech construction company in a series of disputes with a client with a total value exceeding EUR 30 million.

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Charles University, Faculty of Law, Prague (2014), Mgr.

---

E: petr.vohnicky@havelpartners.cz