

Mgr. Radovan Hříšný

Security Director

Radovan Hříšný is responsible for the comprehensive protection and strategic management of security risks across the entire HAVEL & PARTNERS Group. He is also responsible for all facets of client security—from physical and personnel safeguards to information and cybersecurity—along with the development and implementation of crisis prevention measures.

Radovan is an expert with over 15 years of experience in security, crisis management, and detection of serious economic crime.

Prior to joining HAVEL & PARTNERS, Radovan held top command positions in the criminal service of the Military Police. He was the Deputy Chief of the Criminal Investigation Service of the Military Police and also headed the Criminal Investigation Service Department of the Military Police specialising in the detection of serious economic crime. Previously, he also served in the Multinational Force and Observers mission in Sinai, where he was in charge of security measures for international military units and of setting the mission's internal security policy.
