

Kateřina Kabátová

Associate

Kateřina Kabátová specialises in corporate law, corporate transformations, corporate and tax restructuring of business groups, and regulation of shareholder relationships.

She also provides legal advisory to private clients, including comprehensive solutions for intergenerational capital transfers, creation of Family Office structures for wealth management, and related setups of holding arrangements and fund structures.

She started working with our law firm in 2015 when she was a student at the Faculty of Law at Charles University. During her studies she also participated in the Erasmus+ programme at Radboud University Nijmegen.

Projects

- comprehensive legal advisory to companies operating on the Prime Market of the Prague Stock Exchange
- advisory in connection with the establishment and dissolution of companies, spin-offs, associations, foundations, and other forms of legal entities
- advisory in connection with transformations of companies and other forms of legal entities
- advisory on increases in the registered capital
- advisory on the establishment of personal holding structures for private clients, with an emphasis on securing family needs, intergenerational capital transfer, and risk diversification
- comprehensive legal advisory services to a major Czech arms group
- advisory to companies and shareholders in connection with the implementation of general meetings
- resolution of corporate shareholder disputes
- setting up management and option programmes as well as shareholder agreements
- advisory on due diligence of Czech companies for acquisition purposes

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Charles University, Faculty of Law, Prague (2018), Mgr. (Master of Laws)

Radboud University Nijmegen, Faculty of Law, Nijmegen, Netherlands (2017–2018), Erasmus+ study programme

E: katerina.kabatova@havelpartners.cz