

Jiří Kunášek

Partner

Jiří Kunášek specialises in commercial law and corporate law, in particular in resolution of commercial disputes, transformations of companies and holding structures. He also provides comprehensive legal advice to private clients assisting them with the protection and management of personal and family wealth and private assets, or inter-generation capital transfer. Jiří has been involved in building a dedicated family property law group and is also the mainstay of a successful inheritance law team that represents clients in large and complex inheritance disputes and settlements. He also focuses on financial and capital markets law and advises companies on IPOs.

Before joining our law firm in 2017 he worked for leading Czech law firms which closely cooperate with major international groups focused on general practice.

Projects

- comprehensive legal advice on increasing the registered capital of a municipal company worth CZK 4,700,000,000
- comprehensive legal advice to companies operating on the Prime Market of the Prague Stock Exchange
- legal advice in connection with the admission of several Czech companies to Prague START Stock Exchange and subsequent legal advice to those companies
- comprehensive legal advice to municipal capital companies including their transformations
- comprehensive legal advice to a major Czech arms group including legal advice on the spin-off of foreign business activities
- comprehensive legal advice in connection with the incorporation of companies, branches, associations, foundations and other legal entities
- preparing management plans, option plans and shareholder agreements
- advising companies in corporate disputes with their minority shareholders and members
- resolving disputes between shareholders and members
- managing general meetings and legal assistance with corporate governance
- advising major Czech private clients on the transfer of their assets to the next generation, including proposals of a suitable assets transfer structure, creation of trusts and other tailor-made solutions
- representing clients in inheritance proceedings, in particular in disputes regarding the right of heritage

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Palacký University, Law Faculty, Olomouc (2014), Mgr. (Master of Laws)
Charles University, Faculty of law, Prague (2020), JUDr. (Doctor of Laws)

E: jiri.kunasek@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 255 000 493