

Jan Macháček

Tax Adviser

Jan Macháček specialises in corporate tax and VAT.

His tax advisory practice focuses on the preparation of tax returns and day-to-day tax advisory services for large multinational manufacturing or trading companies operating in the Czech Republic, particularly in the automotive, import of goods, sale of goods and services, media and IT sectors. He has experience in the area of transfer pricing, ongoing tax advisory services and advice on entering the Czech market. During his practice he was responsible for complex tax agendas (CIT, VAT, tax returns and other tax agendas) of many Czech branches of international corporations or large Czech companies, including assisting in tax audits of these entities.

Before joining HAVEL & PARTNERS Tax s.r.o. (formerly TAX ADVISORY SERVICES s.r.o.) in 2017, Jan worked for three years in the tax department of Ernst & Young.

Projects

- tax advice to Czech companies as well as subsidiaries of multinational corporations
- preparation of comprehensive tax returns for legal entities
- performing tax due diligences
- advice on transfer pricing
- advice on investment incentives

Membership in professional associations

Czech Chamber of Tax Advisers (KDPČR)

Languages

Czech, English

Education

University of West Bohemia, Faculty of Economics, Pilsen, Ing. (Master's degree)

E: jan.machacek@havelpartners.cz