

Simona Tziata*Senior Associate

Simona Tziata specialises in employment law and immigration law.

In the area of employment law, she focuses in particular on the creation/change/termination of employment relationships, setting employee remuneration, drafting employment documentation and internal regulations of employers, employment due diligence, and employment law aspects of transactions.

In the area of immigration law, Simona focuses on obtaining work and residence permits for employees from non-EU countries posted by multinational companies to work in the Czech Republic, posting of employees within the European Union, and other issues related to immigration law.

Before starting in the position of an associate, she worked at our law firm as a junior associate. Prior to joining our law firm in 2020, Simona worked in a Prague-based law firm where she was dealing with general civil, commercial, and criminal law matters.

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English, Greek

Education

Palacký University, Faculty of Law, Olomouc (2017), Mgr. (Master's degree)

E: simona.tziata@havelpartners.cz