

Mgr. Anežka Selingerová

Associate

Anežka Selingerová specialises in public sector law, with a particular focus on public procurement, public administration, administrative law, and administrative judiciary. She has extensive experience in administering design competitions, applying the Best Value Approach evaluation method, and other multicriteria evaluation methods, including the use of subjective evaluation criteria. Anežka has been involved in introducing dynamic purchasing systems and in projects for sectoral contracting authorities. She also represents clients before the Office for the Protection of Competition, as well as in other administrative proceedings and litigation before administrative courts.

In the field of public procurement and concessions, Anežka also advises to suppliers in tender procedures. Anežka also provides consulting services in the area of transport services under the Act on Public Passenger Transport Services and the related EU Regulation on passenger transport.

She regularly lectures and publishes on public procurement topics.

Projects

- Representing contracting authorities in organising architectural design competitions, both as a member of the organiser's implementation team and as secretary or deputy secretary of the respective competition
- Legal advice and representation of contracting authorities in implementing dynamic purchasing systems
- Representing major sectoral and contracting authorities (including municipalities) in administering procurement procedures using the Best Value Approach evaluation method and other subjective evaluation criteria in public procurement for design services and construction works
- Preparation of legal opinions on the Public Procurement Act
- Representing contracting authorities and suppliers in proceedings before the Office for the Protection of Competition
- Legal advice to clients in administrative proceedings
- Preparation of administrative actions and representation of clients before regional courts and the Supreme Administrative Court

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Palacky University, Faculty of Law, Olomouc (2022), Mgr.

E: anezka.selingerova@havelpartners.cz