

Tereza Ditrychová

Associate

Tereza Ditrychová specialises in intellectual property, media and telecommunications and in civil law of contracts. She also specialises in unfair competition.

In the area of intellectual property she focuses mainly on copyright and industrial law and their protection.

In law of contracts she specialises in the drafting and revisions of commercial contracts, IP-related contracts, licence or franchising agreements.

In the field of unfair competition, she focuses on complex matters relating primarily to unfair competition and the related methods of protection.

Prior to joining our law firm, she worked for four years at a leading Czech law firm where she focused primarily on IP, commercial law and public procurement issues.

Projects

- advising clients in connection with trademarks and other industrial property issues
- advising a global cosmetics manufacturer in connection with its legal disputes relating to a trademark in the Czech Republic and on an unfair competition case
- legal services in the IP area relating to legal due diligence of a major Czech publishing house before its planned sale
- advising major local and international clients on revising comprehensive contractual documentation
- advising a major local media & telecommunications company
- advising a major manufacturer of products for the energy sector on unfair competition issues

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English, Spanish

Education

Charles University, Faculty of law, Prague (2014), Mgr. (Master of Laws)

E: tereza.ditrychova@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 728 250 665