

Barbara Fikarová Associate

Barbara Fikarová specialises in the public sector, namely in public procurement and concession procedures. She also provides legal advice on administrative law and projects co-financed from EU Operational Programmes.

In the public sector, Barbara concentrates on providing comprehensive legal advice in connection with public procurement and concessions (to contracting authorities as well as to suppliers), including advice on the preparation and organisation of procurement/concession procedures, participation of suppliers in the procedures, raising and handling objections or preparing expert opinions and analyses regarding issues concerned. Throughout her work, she represented a number of clients before the Office for the Protection of Competition and in administrative law suits.

Barbara has been cooperating with our law firm in different positions since 2008.

Projects

- advising a contracting authority (the central state authority) on the preparation and organisation of an IT services award procedure
- advising a contracting authority (the central state authority) on the organisation of several IT and advisory service award procedures
- advising a contracting authority (a municipality) as the central contracting authority on the organisation of an award procedure for the selection of an insurer of the contracting authority and its subordinate organisations
- advising a contracting authority (a municipality) on the organisation of a framework contract award procedure and subsequent partial implementation agreements with operators of dozens of boiler plants
- advising a major international IT company in connection with its participation in award procedures
- advising a provider of a subsidy in connection with the inspection of more than 300 projects co-financed from EU Operational Programme Environment
- advising on the application of an in-house exception during public procurement procedures
- drafting internal policies, public procurement methodologies and manuals
- advising on the application of the act on free access to information

Membership in professional associations

Czech Bar Association

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Charles University, Faculty of Law, Prague (2013), Mgr. (Master of Laws)

E: barbara.fikarova@havelpartners.cz

T: +420 739 600 937