

Ondřej Majer

Partner

Ondřej Majer specialises in commercial and contractual law, corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, real estate law, litigation and bankruptcy law. Ondřej has extensive experience in the automotive, energy, real estate and construction sectors, both in Czech Republic and in Slovakia.

In mergers and acquisitions, he has represented a number of clients, on the side of both sellers and buyers, in Czech Republic and in Slovakia.

In real estate, Ondřej has advised many clients on the preparation, financing and implementation of real estate projects, as well as in acquisitions of properties and real estate projects, including hotel projects.

In litigation and insolvency, Ondřej has represented clients in a number of comprehensive litigation matters, including cross-border disputes, cross-border insolvencies, disputes with an international element, and corporate law disputes.

Prior to joining our law firm, Ondřej worked for almost fifteen years in a major Czech law firm with offices in several countries in Central and Eastern Europe, and was involved in managing its Slovak office and then its Czech office.
