

Patrik Šnajdr Associate

Patrik Šnajdr specialises in litigation, in particular claims management and collection.

In litigation he focuses primarily on the management and collection of claims owed to leading Czech banks, non-banking entities and major Czech companies. He also represents clients before public authorities, in particular in litigations before Czech courts.

Prior to joining our firm in 2020, Patrik acted as a junior associate at a Czech law firm specialised in claims management and collection. Subsequently, as an independent attorney-at-law, he provided legal services in the field of claims management and collection as well as in other fields, namely labour law and real estate matters.
