

Marek Vojáček

Partner

Marek Vojáček mainly advises Czech and Slovak investment groups on restructuring transactions and insolvency proceedings, mergers, acquisitions and divestitures. He specialises in particular in transactions involving insolvency or restructuring elements and transactions with portfolios of non-performing debt. Marek has managed comprehensive legal projects in connection with the bankruptcy of Union banka (the largest bankruptcy proceeding in the history of the Czech Republic).

He has also advised various international financial groups on acquisitions of non-performing debt portfolios from specialized Czech governmental consolidation institutions and from non-governmental financial institutions. Marek has also represented clients in complex disputes, including disputes relating to mergers and acquisitions.

Projects typically managed by Marek include legal advisory to major Czech, Slovak and international corporations and natural persons in connection with complex disputes or in situations involving insolvency aspects, and also advisory on bulk sale or collection of debt portfolios.

Before establishing our law firm in 2001, he worked for several years at Linklaters.
