

Mgr. Gabriel Kulik

Associate

Gabriel Kulik specialises primarily in commercial law, mergers and acquisitions, corporate law, contract management, and real estate matters.

In the field of mergers and acquisitions, he provides legal advice to both sellers and buyers, conducts due diligence, prepares comprehensive transaction documentation, and assists with post-transaction issues.

In corporate law, Gabriel helps clients with implementing corporate changes and internal restructurings.

His contract management work involves drafting, reviewing, and negotiating various types of commercial and civil contracts. He offers comprehensive advice on setting up contractual relationships, identifying risks, and protecting clients' legal interests.

In real estate and construction, Gabriel focuses on legal due diligence of properties, construction financing, and drafting documentation related to the purchase, sale, lease, or construction of properties.

He joined our law firm in 2023, having previously worked for four years at two leading international law firms.
