

Ludmila Dančová Patent Department Officer

Ludmila Dančová specialises in administration related to industrial property rights.

Prior to joining our law firm in 2025, she served for five years at the District Court in Mladá Boleslav, where she worked as a court clerk and administrative assistant in the Civil Division. Her responsibilities included preparing materials for hearings, recording hearings, providing administrative support, and collaborating closely with judges.

Ludmila studied at the Secondary Vocational School for Legal Administration of the EU, specialising in Public Administration, with a focus on Legal Administration. During her studies, she gained practical experience in notary offices and at the court, working as an administrative assistant and receptionist.

Languages

Czech, English

Education

Secondary Vocational School for Legal Administration of the EU, Praha 9 – Horní Počernice, (2019)

E: ludmila.dancova@havelpartners.cz