

JUDr. Adriana Kováčiková

Managing Associate

Adriana Kováčiková specialises primarily in insurance law, commercial and civil law, and all aspects of the day-to-day operations of companies.

In insurance law, Adriana focuses on drafting and revising insurance documentation, including insurance policy terms, agreements between insurers and business partners, including contractual relationships with financial intermediaries, handling insurance claims, and representing insurers in court and administrative proceedings. She has provided legal advice to leading Slovak and international insurance companies on intra-group reorganizations, as well as on acquisitions of parts of businesses and outsourcing selected activities.

Another key area of her expertise is insurance regulation and proceedings before the National Bank of Slovakia.

In commercial and civil law, Adriana advises clients on both the seller and buyer sides, including consumer relation matters.

She joined our law firm in 2025, after having served for 16 years as a partner at the prominent Slovak law firm Ružička and Partners, s.r.o.
